

4th Sunday after Epiphany

CHRIST LUTHERAN CHURCH | Lodi, California

January 31, 2021

WELCOME TO WORSHIP

Welcome to Christ Lutheran Church. We pray that your soul will be strengthened by the good news about God's grace, love, and forgiveness given to us. If you would like to learn more about our church, please speak with our pastor or one of our members after the service.

WORSHIP THEME

Why follow him? Jesus shows his glory by his triumph over the devil. In his own day he sometimes did that openly for many to see. He still does it just as effectively but in a less public, less obvious way. Just as his victory made manifest his glory then, so it does now. Just as then, so now, everything is accomplished through his authoritative Word.

MORNING PRAISE

"Morning Praise" is based on the historic service called "Matins". Joined to Christ, our risen Lord, we glorify God as we prepare for the activities of the day.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M: Almighty God, You know we live in the midst of so many dangers that in our frailty we cannot stand upright. Grant strength and protection to support us in all dangers and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

C: Amen.

FIRST LESSON

Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses gives the promise of another Prophet who will be like Moses, yet greater. In the Old Testament the penalty for false doctrine was death; for God takes his Word seriously. In the New Testament there is no call for us to kill false prophets. But there remains the call to shun them and dread the dread effect of their words and works. God takes his Word seriously. Woe to those who do not! For they invite the devil's rule and his fate, which Jesus expels when he speaks and we listen.

<sup>15</sup>“The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own brothers. You must listen to him. <sup>16</sup>This is what you requested from the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said, ‘Let us not continue to hear the voice of the LORD our God or see this great fire any longer, so that we will not die!’ <sup>17</sup>Then the LORD said to me, ‘They have spoken well. <sup>18</sup>I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers. I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I command him. <sup>19</sup>I will hold accountable whoever does not listen to my words that he speaks in my name. <sup>20</sup>But the prophet who presumes to speak a message in my name that I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods—that prophet must die.’”

PSALM OF THE DAY

Psalm 1

Refrain

Bless-ed are they who hope, who hope in the Lord.

Psalm tone

Blessed is the man

who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked
or stand in the way of sinners.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD,
and on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree planted by streams of water,
which yields its fruit in season
and whose leaf does not wither.

Whatever he does prospers.

Refrain

Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked will perish.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son

and to the Holy Spirit,

as it was in the beginning,

is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Refrain

SECOND LESSON

1 Corinthians 8:1-13

Our Lord wants us to be careful in our Christian freedom so that we do not offend the weak. The use of meat sacrificed to idols is something neither commanded nor forbidden by God. In matters of concern today, we remember not to wound weak consciences merely to show that something is permissible.

Now about food sacrificed to idols: We know that “we all have knowledge.” Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.<sup>2</sup> If anyone thinks he knows anything, he does not yet know it as he ought to know it.<sup>3</sup> But if anyone loves God, he is known by him.

<sup>4</sup> About eating food sacrificed to idols, then, we know that “an idol is nothing in the world,”<sup>4</sup> and that “there is no God but one.”<sup>5</sup> For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth—as there are many “gods” and many “lords”—<sup>6</sup> yet for us there is one God, the Father. All things are from him, and we exist for him. And there is one Lord, Jesus Christ. All things are through him, and we exist through him.

<sup>7</sup> However, not everyone has this knowledge. Some have been so used to idolatry up until now that when they eat food sacrificed to an idol, their conscience, being weak, is defiled.<sup>8</sup> Food will not bring us close to God.<sup>9</sup> We are not worse off if we don’t eat, and we are not better if we do eat.<sup>9</sup> But be careful that this right of yours in no way becomes a stumbling block to the weak.<sup>10</sup> For if someone sees you, the one who has knowledge, dining in an idol’s temple, won’t his weak conscience be encouraged<sup>10</sup> to eat food offered to idols? <sup>11</sup> So the weak person, the brother or sister for whom Christ died, is ruined<sup>11</sup> by your knowledge. <sup>12</sup> Now when you sin like this against brothers and sisters and wound their weak conscience, you are sinning against Christ. <sup>13</sup> Therefore, if food causes my brother or sister to fall, I will never again eat meat, so that I won’t cause my brother or sister to fall.

VERSE OF THE DAY

Luke 4:18

Alleluia. The Spirit of the Lord is on me; he has anointed me to preach good news.

Alleluia.

THE GOSPEL

Mark 1:21-28

The devil is quiet when false doctrine is taught. But as soon as Jesus appears with the gospel, the devil is enraged and does all that he can to hinder the message. Here he does it by confessing what on the surface is the truth; but he does it with evil intent, to hinder the work of the glorious gospel. Who, after all, wants to be confessed by the devil? At the very least the confession of the demons would confuse people. But Jesus silences the devil and drives him away, while the devil in leaving demonstrates that his only power is to hurt and destroy, and only that so long as the Lord for reasons of his own permits it.

<sup>21</sup> They went into Capernaum, and right away he entered the synagogue on the Sabbath and began to teach. <sup>22</sup> They were astonished at his teaching because he was teaching them as one who had authority, and not like the scribes.

<sup>23</sup> Just then a man with an unclean spirit was in their synagogue. He cried out, <sup>24</sup> “What do you have to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

<sup>25</sup> Jesus rebuked him saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” <sup>26</sup> And the unclean spirit threw him into convulsions, shouted with a loud voice, and came out of him.

<sup>27</sup> They were all amazed, and so they began to ask each other, “What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.” <sup>28</sup> At once the news about him spread throughout the entire vicinity of Galilee.

Jesus is Revealed by Setting Captives Free

The Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany

God's Word for Today

We call Jesus our Redeemer. The word "redeem" means to buy back from capture and captivity, to pay a ransom. As sinful human beings we were captive to the law of God because of our sin and the consequences of sin, principally death. But Jesus has set us free from the law, its threats and its curses, by keeping God's law for us perfectly. As Christians we are no longer "under law, but under grace" (Romans 6:14). But we are not to abuse our Christian freedom. Instead Jesus has set us free so we will become slaves to righteousness, serving others in love, always thanking our Redeemer.

First Lesson (Deuteronomy 18:15-20)

1. What request did the people of Israel have for the Lord when they had previously assembled at Mt. Horeb (Sinai)?
2. Whom was the Lord going to send?
3. Which is worse, for a preacher to speak a little that God has not commanded, or to speak in the name of other gods?

Gospel (Mark 1:21-28)

4. What did people notice when Jesus taught?
5. How did Jesus demonstrate his authority?
